Glenmede's Business Development Director and Managing Director Named One of Crain's Cleveland Business "Most Influential Women in Finance 2017"

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania – November 1, 2017 – Glenmede, a privately-held and independently owned investment and wealth management firm with $37 billion in assets under management (AUM), announced today that Linda M. Olejko, Business Development Director and Managing Director, has been named by Crain's Cleveland Business as one of the "Most Influential Women in Finance." Olejko was acknowledged for significantly raising the profile of Glenmede in the Northeast Ohio region and positioning the firm as a premiere investment advisor.

"It is quite an achievement to be recognized as a businessperson and woman in finance," said Olejko. "Advocating for women continues to be top priority for us and more than half of Glenmede's workforce is comprised of women. Our demonstrated history of strong commitment to diversity is reflected in the deep and differential client experience we have cultivated."

The Crain's Cleveland Business' "Most Influential Women in Finance" list highlights esteemed women in finance that are striving tirelessly to not only better their careers and respective businesses, but to develop and foster industry-related opportunities for other women. Nominees were selected by a panel of Crain's judges representing a pool of bankers, financial advisers, portfolio analysts, private equity principals, and other financial executives for inclusion on the list. Among the 15 women recognized, Crain's identified all as strategic thinkers and trailblazers in their fields.
